

ART ROSENFELD AWARD

FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY

The Art Rosenfeld Award for Energy Efficiency is a $7,500 award awarded to one graduate student in a Ph.D., Masters, J.D. or professional program who is committed to research on energy efficiency. This includes technical, social science and policy research that can lead to reductions in the use of energy.

APPLICATION MATERIALS

- Your resume or CV of up to two pages
- Personal Statement (750-1000 words) describing your background and how you selected a career related to the field of energy efficiency
- Plan of Action (750-1000 words) describing your academic plans and how the Rosenfeld Award will support, broaden and/or accelerate them.

Please submit all materials to info@uc-ciee.org

Apply by March 15, 2020

Notification of award by April 7, 2020

More information at: uc-ciee.org

